CHRISTIAN MARRIAGE AND FAMILY LECTURE TOPIC

DAYTON, Ohio, June 30, 1981 -- The University of Dayton 1981 Summer Lecture Series on Christian Marriage and Family continues Tuesday, July 7, with Reverend Richard A. McCormick, S.J. McCormick will discuss key historical moments in the development of marriage and sexual ethics in the Catholic Church. The lecture will be at 7:30 p.m. in the Boll Theatre of the University of Dayton Kennedy Memorial Union.

Currently Rose F. Kennedy Professor of Christian Ethics of the Kennedy Institute of Ethics, Georgetown University, and Research Associate at the Woodstock Theological Center, Washington, D.C., McCormick recently authored How Brave A New World?, published by Doubleday. He has authored several other books and is a regular contributor to journals. He also lectures extensively.

The UD lecture, third in a summer series sponsored by the Department of Religious Studies, is free and all interested persons are invited to attend. Ample parking is available near the lecture site.

For additional information call 229-2539, or write to Richard A. Boulet, Department of Religious Studies, University of Dayton, 300 College Park, Dayton, Ohio 45469.
